

American Music Awards Loge Seating with a 3 Night Stay and Airfare for (2)

Be treated to more of today's hottest musicians and entertainers in person at the AMA's!

The American Music Awards were founded in 1973 by Dick Clark and broadcast on ABC. Clark created the awards in response to the Grammy Awards contract expiring with ABC. Unlike the Grammys, the American Music Awards (AMA) are decided by public polls, record sales and other factors including video views and social networking activity. Some music industry experts believe they more accurately reflect popular opinion than the Grammys, which are decided by panels of Recording Academy members.
