“WONDERFUL! My husband and I recently stayed in this condo for 5 nights, on our first visit to Rome. All I can say is that it was a really great place to stay. the location was ideal for the sightseeing that we wanted to do. You can actually walk to the Colloseum in about 20 minutes or I think you could also take a metro which was like one stop, but we didnt even bother with that. We felt like it was a "real" neighbourhood of Rome, away from the hordes of tourists, but close enough to everything, which we really liked. The restaurants close by were great and cheaper than the tourist traps in the city centre (of which we tried a few and were less than impressed). We also explored the area of Testaccio (which is 5 minute walk) which has some of the best trattorias and pizzerias in rome according to my guide book. We ate a really good pizza in a place called "Remo" which was super authentic and rustic..with equally rustic waiting staff!! The condo was clean, modern and the owner friendly and helpful. Francesco answered all our questions and spoke perfect English (which always makes things easier), so everything we could have wished for. Would 100% reccommend it to anyone planning a visit.”
