Priceless

Pretty blue shutters, intricately tiled floors and traditional exposed stone walls are just some of the characterful features that perfectly complement elegant furnishings and modern sculpture, creating a chic yet unpretentious ambience.

Located in the historic heart of an old Languedoc village, within walking distance to two bakeries where you can pick up your morning bread and pastries, a village restaurant and butchers. A mixture of landscapes makes it a great place to visit, with a good stretch of coastline offering a totally different experience. Nearest Major Metropolitan Airport: Montpellier approx. 45 miles.
